

Annotated Abstracts of Extant Gainesville, Georgia
Newspapers
1861 - 1910
Unfortunate Events and Items of Genealogical Interest

This seemingly quiet little town on the banks of the Chattahoochee River has seen its fair share of murders, lynchings, beatings, drownings, stabbings, shootings, accidents, tornadoes, suicides, and lunacy trials which were reported in the local newspapers. On the lighter side engagements, marriages, and births were also reported. All of those articles, and more, are abstracted in this 702 page hard bound book.

Other abstracted items included are the following:

Legal ads, ordinary court, superior court, and city court filings
Confederate pensioners
Articles on General James Longstreet and his family
Cemetery records from this and surrounding counties
Marriage records from the Probate Court office
Maps of Hall County Land and Militia Districts
A 51 page full name index
A list of Hall County place names
